Dear Families & Friends –

It's back to school time for our friends in the Children's Program and we are so glad to have their company and their laughter filling the playground as well as the center this month as we return to regular intergenerational programming with our classrooms.

This month we are also welcoming two new interns from UTC. De'Nesha Jones & Kaycee Whiteside are seniors in the Social Work Program at UTC who will be with us for the next nine months. This fall semester they will be working on Mondays and Wednesdays, so I hope you will take a moment to introduce yourself to them. We have several large-scale projects in the works that we are grateful to have their assistance.

Please take a moment to look over the calendar and make note of the important dates. Our annual staff in service dates begin again this month. I know that it is a hassle for the program to be closed but it is imperative that our staff have an opportunity to participate in trainings to meet our licensing requirements. Make up dates will be assigned over the course of the following week. Be on the lookout on for these.

Also included is information and a release form for our upcoming collaboration with artist, David Greenberger. We are extremely excited to be a part of this upcoming project.

Lastly flu shots will be available in the Adult Center on September 14th from 1-3 if you are interested in having your flu shot done here please bring your insurance card in. For individuals who do not usually attend on Fridays you are welcome to drop by for your shot.

Stay Cool –
